A champion named Goliath, who was from Gath, came out of the Philistine camp. His height was six cubits and a span.

As he was talking with them, Goliath, the Philistine champion from Gath, stepped out from his lines and shouted his usual defiance, and David heard it. Whenever the Israelites saw the man, they all fled from him in great fear.

The “foolishness” of God

For the foolishness of God is wiser than human wisdom, and the weakness of God is stronger than human strength.

The message of the cross

For the message of the cross is foolishness to those who are perishing, but to us who are being saved it is the power of God.

For since in the wisdom of God the world through its wisdom did not know him, God was pleased through the foolishness of what was preached to save those who believe.

A wooden cross stands in a field of white flowers under a blue sky with clouds. The cross is made of weathered wood and is positioned on the right side of the image. The field is filled with small white flowers, and the sky is a vibrant blue with scattered white clouds. The overall scene is peaceful and serene.

You see, at just the right time, when we were still powerless, Christ died for the ungodly. Very rarely will anyone die for a righteous person, though for a good person someone might possibly dare to die. But God demonstrates his own love for us in this: While we were still sinners, Christ died for us.

Power of God and Wisdom of God

Jews demand signs and Greeks look for wisdom, but we preach Christ crucified: a stumbling block to Jews and foolishness to Gentiles, but to those whom God has called, both Jews and Greeks, Christ the power of God and the wisdom of God.

God's wisdom revealed by His spirit

What we have received is not the spirit of the world, but the Spirit who is from God, so that we may understand what God has freely given us. This is what we speak, not in words taught us by human wisdom but in words taught by the Spirit, explaining spiritual realities with Spirit-taught words.
