

Romans 6: Two questions

What shall we say then? Are we to continue in sin that grace may abound?

Romans 6:1

What then? Are we to sin because we are not under law but under grace?

Romans 6:15

This is true...

We know that our old self was crucified with him in order that the body of sin might be brought to nothing, so that we would no longer be enslaved to sin. For one who has died has been set free<sup>[b]</sup> from sin.

Romans 6:6-7

We know that Christ, being raised from the dead, will never die again; death no longer has dominion over him.

Romans 6:9

...come to this conclusion

So you also must consider yourselves dead to sin and alive to God in Christ Jesus.

Romans 6:11

Consider = come this this logical conclusion

Therefore...

Let not sin therefore reign in your mortal body, to make you obey its passions. Do not present your members to sin as instruments for unrighteousness, but present yourselves to God as those who have been brought from death to life, and your members to God as instruments for righteousness.

Romans 6:12-13

For sin will have no dominion over you, since you are not under law but under grace.

Romans 6:14

For sin will have no dominion over you, since you are not under law but under grace.

Romans 6:14

Question #2

What then? Are we to sin because we are not under law but under grace?

Romans 6:15

Do you not know that if you present yourselves to anyone as obedient slaves, you are slaves of the one whom you obey, either of sin, which leads to death, or of obedience, which leads to righteousness?

Romans 6:16

Slaves of sin or slave of righteousness

But thanks be to God, that you who were once slaves of sin have become obedient from the heart to the standard of teaching to which you were committed, and, having been set free from sin, have become slaves of righteousness.

Romans 6:17-18

But now that you have been set free from sin and have become slaves of God, the fruit you get leads to sanctification and its end, eternal life. For the wages of sin is death, but the free gift of God is eternal life in Christ Jesus our Lord.

Romans 6:22-23
