Parenting

We shape our children and this largely happens by them imitating us.

Therefore, be imitators of God, as dearly loved children. – Ephesians 5:1

Listen, Israel: The Lord our God, the Lord is One. Love the Lord your God with all your heart, with all your soul, and with all your strength. These words that I am giving you today are to be in your heart. Repeat them to your children. Talk about them when you sit in your house and when you walk along the road, when you lie down and when you get up. Bind them as a sign on your hand and let them be a symbol on your forehead. Write them on the doorposts of your house and on your gates. – Deuteronomy 6:4-9

They Are Loved

Because you are precious in My sight and honored, and I love you, I will give people in exchange for you and nations instead of your life. – Isaiah 43:4

They Are Under Authority

For the Lord disciplines the one He loves, just as a father, the son he delights in. – Proverbs 3:12

They Are Part Of Something Bigger Than Themselves

Finally, be strengthened by the Lord and by His vast strength. Put on the full armor of God so that you can stand against the tactics of the Devil. For our battle is not against flesh and blood, but against the rulers, against the authorities, against the world powers of this darkness, against the spiritual forces of evil in the heavens. This is why you must take up the full armor of God, so that you may be able to resist in the evil day, and having prepared everything, to take your stand. – Ephesians 6:10-13

I searched for a man among them who would repair the wall and stand in the gap before Me on behalf of the land so that I might not destroy it, but I found no one. – Ezekiel 22:30
